Command Performance

Command Security Corporation

Command Performance

- The kind of performance that comes from meticulous preparation.
- The kind of performance that results from flawless execution.
- The kind of performance that exceeds your expectations.

Command Performance – it's the performance you can expect when you partner with Command Security for your security needs.

Meticulous Preparation...

quality recruiting
stringent screening
comprehensive training

Meticulous Preparation

+ Flawless Execution =

Client Satisfaction

Businesses today face unprecedented challenges to ensuring the protection of valuable corporate resources, including facilities, intellectual property, and most importantly, people. Now more than ever it is critical to partner with a security firm that will provide the highest quality services that are customized to meet your individual requirements.

Command Security is one of the largest independent security service firms in the United States, serving clients across the country in a wide variety of industries. Our size allows us to be nimble and stay close to our clients, giving us the ability to respond quickly to meet specific client needs.

We understand that the quality of our service depends on attracting and retaining employees of the highest caliber. Recruits go through an intensive screening process to ensure that they meet our stringent professional requirements.

“When it came time to develop a security program at Sidmak, we were confident that the management team at Command Security would bring the experience and skills necessary to really make a difference. Our confidence has been well placed.”

We understand the quality of our service depends on the quality of our people.

Prior to assignment, our personnel go through a comprehensive training program, including the use of state-of-the-art multimedia technology. We also offer continuous training for personnel and managers, including site-specific training programs to enhance performance in specialized job functions.

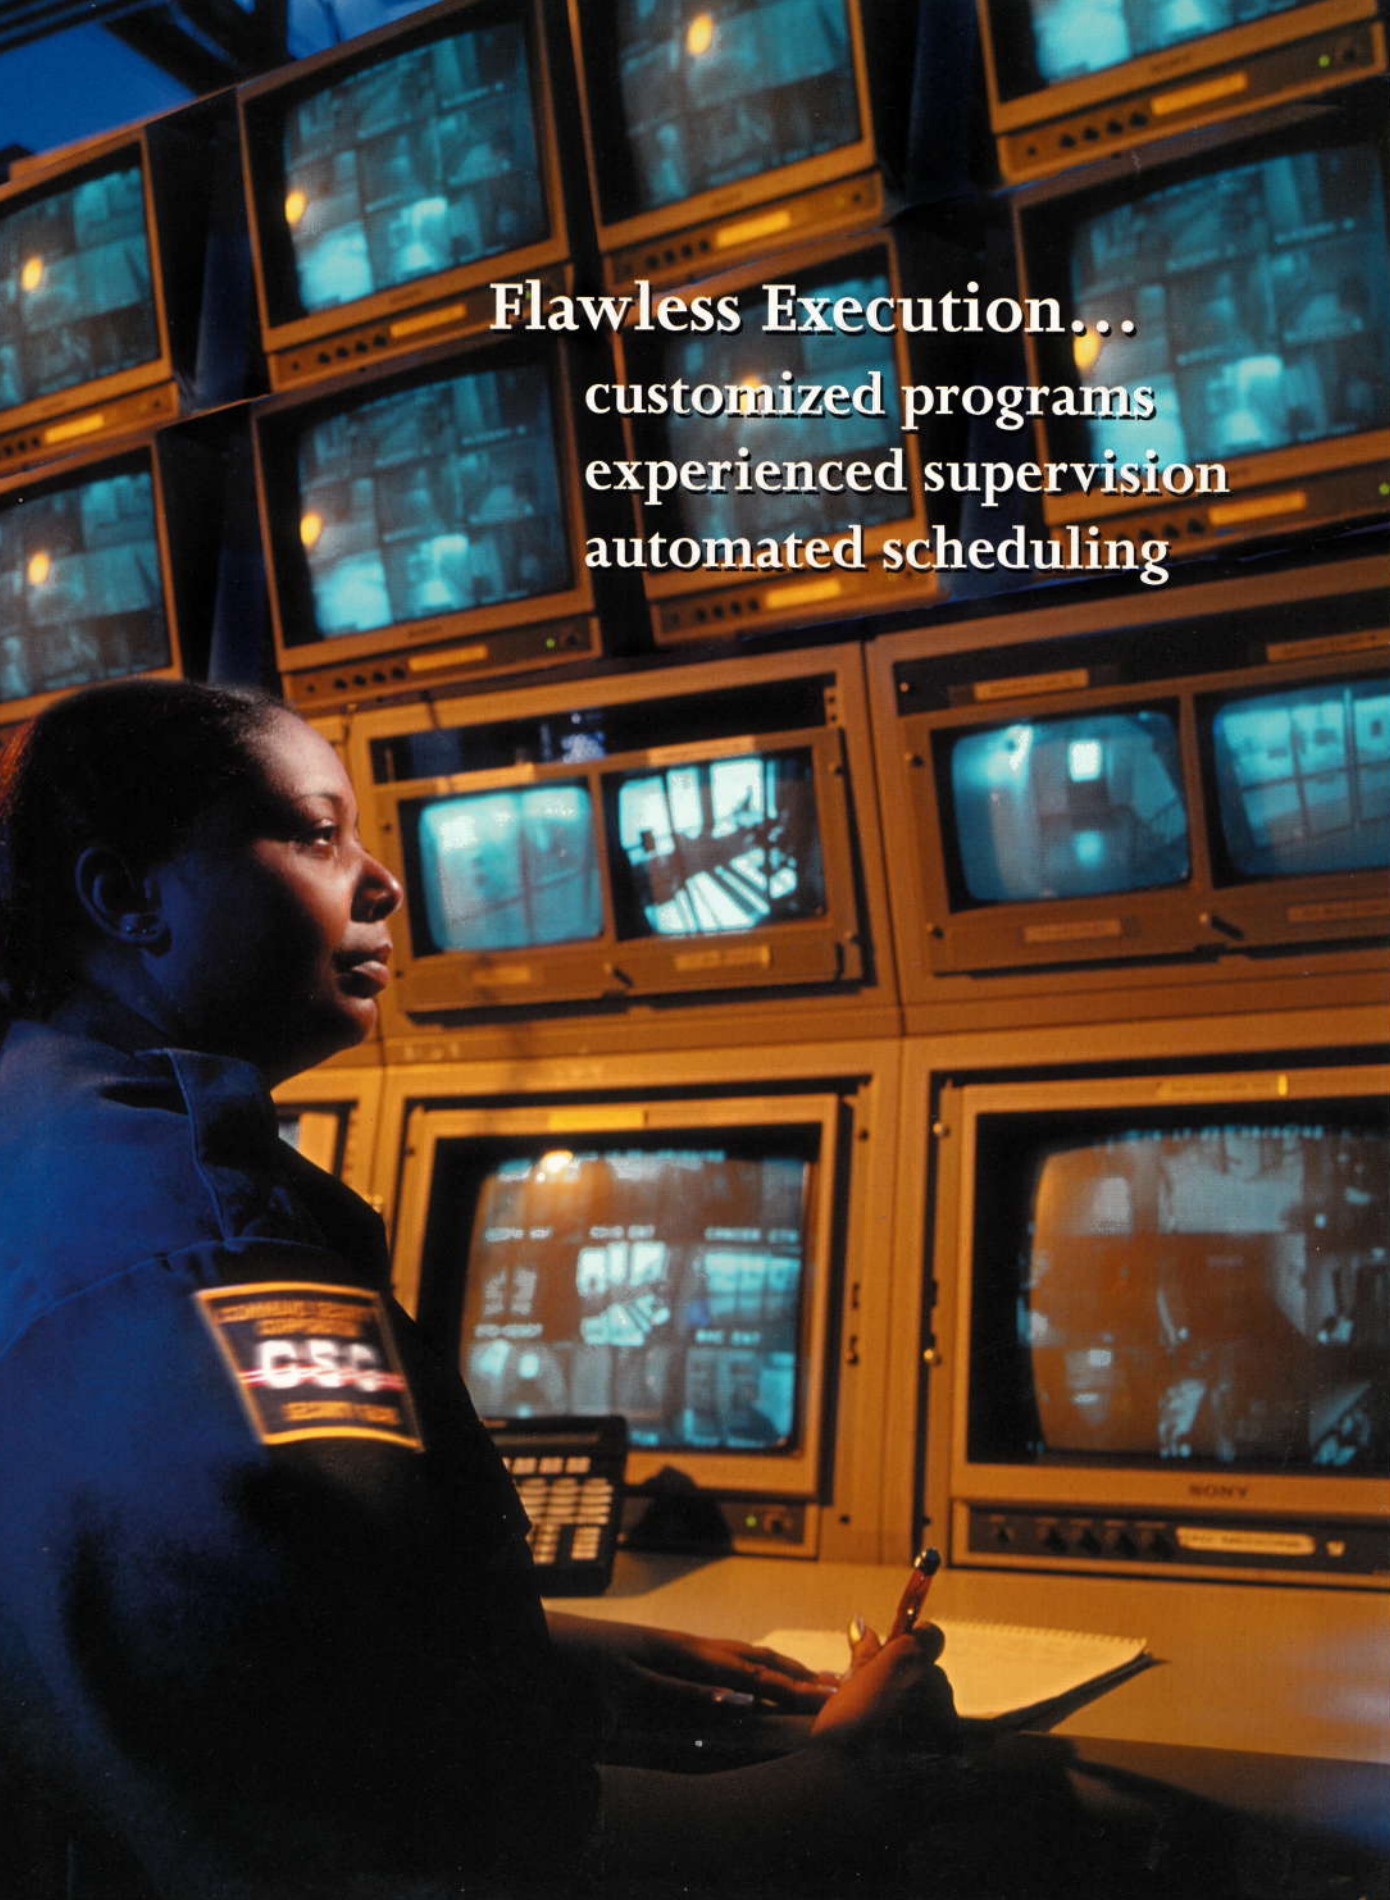

To select the right personnel from our staff to match individual client needs, we utilize our proprietary computerized scheduling system, COMGUARD®. COMGUARD® stores detailed information on each of our employees and client locations, which enables our managers to automatically match security officer qualifications and availability to site requirements. With COMGUARD®, our clients get customized security programs utilizing the personnel best suited for specific tasks.

In addition to automating the scheduling function and reducing overtime through more efficient staffing, COMGUARD® facilitates accurate payroll and billing functions. COMGUARD® generates valuable reports to help our clients more efficiently manage the security function and benefit the bottom line.

Our size allows us to be nimble and to stay close to our clients.

Our managers have extensive experience in law enforcement, guard services and contract personnel management. This experience ensures that our employees are closely supervised in the field, maintaining the highest levels of alertness and discipline. We are on call to respond immediately to emergency situations and to put our wealth of experience to use for our clients.

Command Security is committed to meeting and exceeding client expectations, and we spend considerable time and energy communicating with our clients and getting and giving feedback. Our managers meet with clients for a formal evaluation every month and prepare regular reports that enable senior management to measure our progress.

Our success in achieving this goal is demonstrated by our high client retention rate, our strong growth and the diversity of the clients and industries we serve. From financial services to retail, from aviation services to construction, from universities to manufacturing, Command Security is meeting client needs for the highest quality services.

“It has been my pleasure to have a professional association with Command Security for the past several years. I have found the partnership to be very beneficial, and Command’s management team to be professional and responsive to their client’s needs.”

Now more than ever
it is critical to partner with a firm
that provides high quality, customized services.

Command Security is a full service security firm, providing clients with a comprehensive range of services customized to meet individual needs. Our security teams seamlessly integrate with the daily operations of our clients, working around the clock and every day of the week as needed.

Our security officers have a superior working knowledge of today's sophisticated security systems. Command Security partners with leading security technology companies to field test and implement the latest state-of-the-art equipment.

Among the equipment we are currently utilizing is a new identification system called INTELLICHECK® that immediately confirms through a national DMV network the validity of an individual's drivers license.

This use of advanced technology by our skilled officers is another example of the way Command Security combines meticulous preparation with flawless execution to deliver Command Performance – the kind of performance that continually exceeds client expectations.
