The 2008 Metropolitan Opera Engagement Calendar

Born in 1858, Giacomo Puccini composed some of the most popular operas in the repertoire. Paying tribute to both the composer and the amazing artists who gave life to his creations, with photographs of more than 60 Met artists in some of their most beloved roles from Manon Lescaut through Turandot, this calendar is the perfect way to celebrate Puccini. Spiral bound, this handsome 6½"x9" calendar notes more than 175 operatic birthdays and special events.
